

PROPER TERM-LIMITS IN CONGRESS WOULD SERVE BALANCE-OF-POWERS!

Term Limits in the U.S. Congress -- in this writer's opinion -- could very well be the best Constitutional governmental adjustment that could possibly be made for the benefit of every citizen of this country calling themselves legitimate, trustworthy, and hopefully deserving.

Those of us who believe firmly in the U.S. Constitution (as written) are strongly in favor of what is being generally proposed in the Alabama House of Representatives for a "return" to a model of direction in the U.S. Congress. It is noticeably and unquestionably citizen-based as opposed to the present-day "model" of CAREER POLITICIAN.

Bonafide and legal citizens of the United States have waited entirely too long to make this move which would be the best thing that ever happened to 'OF THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE' -- that of returning our government to "BY THE PEOPLE!"

Not only does our Constitution tell us in no uncertain terms, but we, The People, have been long-experiencing a need to return government to citizen leadership in place of career politicians, too many of whom have made a mockery of our way of governing ourselves. O! Tuck hopes that the Alabama Senate will follow the course of The House and take steps to send this to the U.S. Congress for continued PEOPLE support.

The abuse of membership in the U.S. Congress has grown more and more displeasing to the average citizen-voter for many years. Repeatedly, a sitting congressman or woman finds his or her way into RE-ELECTION through a myriad of advantages to them that have been created during the past half-century. Many make it "lifetime!"

The money involved; the time it takes; the manipulation of the voting process (back home), and many other created niceties have propelled worthy and unworthy members of Congress back into the seats of power when it was undeserving. We, The People have been lax and undeserving.

The People -- no question -- are guilty of allowing the abuse, but we finally have an opportunity to make things right, and much better for the good of our country and our Constitution.

We hope The People will take note, and act accordingly.

THE ALABAMA HOUSE passes "ARTICLE FIVE" (A Term-Limits Resolution) for membership in THE U.S. CONGRESS!

No Matter How Wrong Or Crazy -- The Democrats Insist They Are Invincible!

"However You BUY Votes -- It Is Still Against Freedom!"

When we express the opinion that democrats act "stupid," we are observing a fact-of-the-matter -- not making a personal judgement against them. We always take the tact that if you look and ACT stupid . . . then you must be some form of stupid!

It is one thing to act -- singly, or as a group -- in a manner that always sets you apart in an unfavorable light.

If you say "the moon is rising," when it is actually (and generally accepted) that it is the SUN rising -- that sets you apart alright enough.

The truth-of-the-matter is that some things are natural and are factual whether or not you like it, or agree with it.

If it is a matter of fact that two train engines cannot travel at the same time, on the same track, in opposite directions. . . that is pretty-much accepted by just about everybody -- AS A FACT!

For obvious (and whatever) reasons, unions and political parties seem to attract people who will follow a "leader," and they will follow that "believed-to-be-leader" over the cliff!

There (thankfully) is an independent nature in most of us that demands that we believe the truth -- and question everything that is otherwise. A "leader" over a cliff, falls into that category!

It has been our experience observing unions (groups of a like kind), as well as political parties during the past century and into this one, that the democrat political party in America has been sold (and most of them are buying) the belief that America is the land of opportunity, and they believe that America can stand to accept any and every human-being on earth as a legal (or illegal) citizen of this country without any credibility or expectation on or from the individual in question. AND (they indicate) IT WILL NOT HARM anybody, or anything!

If you call yourself "a democrat" and too many of them have a total passion for believing that "their party" is above reproach, and can do no wrong -- then, without a doubt, you make yourself a part of the problem. Unproven "aliens" may cause harm!

No sane group of people anywhere in the world would accept the stupidity in immigration that the democrat believers insist is a good thing. The democrats "lead" the insane charge. . . and most of them INSANELY insist that it is "good", , , no matter how untrue it is!

WHY IS IT THAT MOST TIMES WE SEE A LIBERAL DEMOCRAT "PROGRESSIVELY" POSTURING ON THE TV ABOUT POLITICS. . . They are always grinning like the proverbial jackass! ARE THEY THAT HAPPY? -- OR, JUST HIDING?

ALABAMA CONSERVATISM STRONGLY PRESENT IN NEXT U.S. CONGRESS TILT!

August of last year, O! Tuck wrote here in this space: "If the "democrats" in America make it, they will have to reinvent themselves, and THEN, they will have to convince a very doubtful populace that they are real, and that their intentions are on behalf of THE PEOPLE. We mean, The American People! They have lost touch to such a degree with America today that it will require some extremely GOOD representatives for the democrats to come back; and they have a lot of radically liberal-leftist baggage that they will have to resist, overcome, and throw-out."

Some of the pundits (or calling themselves "critics") of the day, are saying, and have said, that the democrats showed that they can and will "come back" because they have Jones now as a Senator from Alabama in the place of the resigned Jeff Sessions, who was appointed United States Attorney General by President Donald Trump.

The democrats indicate that they believe that they replaced an elected republican Senator with their own democrat candidate, and they will continue to try and sell that as a definite PLUS for the belabored democrat party in Alabama and America.

If they continue to try and sell that to the voters as a plus for the democrat party, they will be in for a colossal disappointment when the time comes to elect a new senator. Of course it matters what their man Jones and his supporters manage to do in their brief tour of the office -- but not by much.

The "crats" will continue to block as much President Trump-effort as they possibly can, but Jones does not have all that long to help them do it (and neither is he that influential). The republicans will be back the next time around and it will not be in the same fashion that they beat themselves last year. At least, for all practical-sense, it shouldn't be.

The point here is, we are not talking about democrats vs. everybody else. What will be a deciding factor in the next senatorial race in Alabama will be CONSERVATIVE vs. whatever it is that the democrat party will finally throw together to represent them at the gate.

The CONSERVATIVE nature of most Alabamians will not be so easily ignored, or overcome when they have a bonafide representative of their own, standing against democrat folderol. Conservative Alabamians are not that easily hornswaggled. We have a long history of fighting for that which we believe to be common-sense RIGHT!
